Christendom Destroyed: Europe 1517-1648 - Google Books Result The Buen Retiro, a royal retreat and pleasure palace, was built for Philip IV on the outskirts of Madrid in the 1630s. With its superb display of paintings by Velázquez and Rubens, it became one of the most important royal residences in Europe.

Jonathan Brown et JH Elliott, A palace for a King. The Buen Retiro and the Court of Philip IV Revised and expanded edition - Google Books Result

As the authors of A Palace for a King: The Buen Retiro and the Court of Philip IV, John H. Elliott and Jonathan Brown have researched and written extensively about the Buen Retiro, providing a comprehensive history of its development and use during the reign of Philip IV of Spain.