Delayed Primary School Enrollment and Childhood Malnutrition in Ghana: An Economic Analysis

Paul Glewwe Hanan Jacoby

This study compares age at enrolment in Primary School with a range of where delayed enrolment is often extremely common Partnership for Child In Ghana children are expected to spend 6 years in Primary School, then.. An economic analysis of delayed Primary School enrolment in a low income