El Greco's Pentecost In A New Context: Exhibition Meadows Gallery, Meadows School Of The Arts, Southern Methodist University

Meadows Museum Greco

El Greco was a Cretan-born painter, sculptor and architect of the Spanish. Born in 1541 and died in 1614, he exhibited a historical painting that was purchased by the Meadows Museum, Southern Methodist University. His work, the Pentecost, is notable for its depiction of the Virgin of Montserrat. Three years later, he exhibited a historical painting that was purchased by the Meadows Museum, Southern Methodist University. The painting, known as the Pentecost, is notable for its depiction of the Virgin of Montserrat.

For more details on workshops and classes, please refer to the art. El Greco's Pentecost in a new context is on display at the Meadows Museum, Southern Methodist University. The exhibition runs through October 23.