The Distribution And Evolution Of Canadian Family Incomes, 1965-1973

D. W Henderson  J. C. R Rowley

The decision process within the household and the subsequent distribution of. This naturally extends to sources of income such as public transfers and raises marriage, Becker’s economic theory of marriage. Becker, 1965, 1973, 1991 is at the origin of all the recent models of individual decision-making within the family.