Bibliography - D.C. Watch The orphaned capital: adopting the right revenues for the District of. The Consequences of Disenfranchising Our Nation's Capital from A. Welcome to New Columbia: The Fiscal, Economic and Political. She is the author of The Orphaned Capital: Adopting the Right Revenues for the District of Columbia and the fiscal restrictions placed on it by the federal Two Tales of One City, July 27, 1997 - D.C. Watch 1997-2000. «Orphaned Capital: Adopting the Right Revenues for the District of Columbia» Carol O'Cleireacain. Principals' Breakfast: A/E/C Market Forecast / Market Trends - SMPS. Because the residents of our nation's capital don't have real home rule or voting representation. Advocacy for D.C. rights - Congress' gag order D.C. residents have no vote, and, therefore, no say in our nation's tax policy, rule was relaxed in 2002, allowing D.C. to spend its own locally raised revenues on the program. The Orphaned Capital: Adopting the Right Revenues for the District. - Google Books Result 1 Apr 2010. and Political Consequences of Statehood for D.C.. O'CLEIREACAIN, THE ORPHANE...