In the final half of the twentieth century, urbanization went global. Dependent urbanization was very uneven and... showed that world-economic structural.. Third World Cities in Global Perspective: The Political Economy of Urbanization.